DESTROYED BY FIRE. Grandma Coffey's House and Its Contents Burned Last Week.

Mrs. L. A. Coffey's house on her claim at Timber creek, was burned last Thursday. The cause of the fire is not known. It is supposed that the paper on the ceiling of the kitchen caught fire from the stove pipe.

Mrs. Coffey had built a fire to get dinner and then went out in the field near by to gather some greens. She did not look toward the house until she had finished her work and started to return when she saw it ablaze.

The fire spread rapidly and it was impossible to save anything. A wind mill, of her son's E. R. Coffey, and their supply of summer meat, which was in a summer kitchen were destroyed as well as her furniture and other belongings. It is with regret that we hear of her misfortune.

DECORATION DAY EXERCISES

Interesting Program to be Rendered at the Presbyterian Church.

Procession Will be Formed at G. A. R. Hall and Move to Cemetery to Decorate Graves.

Decoration Day exercises will be observed at Beaver in a fitting manner. In preparing for the occasion the people of this place have evinced their characteristic regard for the dead heroes in arranging a program of a varied and appropriate kind. The exercises to be held at the church will consist of addresses, recitations and vocal and instrumental music.

In the morning at 9:30, the members of the G. A. R. post will meet at the G. A. R. Hall, and proceed from there to the cemetery, where the usual decorating exercises will be conducted. In the work of decorating the children are to take a conspicuous part. As to the mode to pursue in decorating they will be instructed by Meadames Bloechard and Hibbs. The song "Mother's Out," will be sung at the cemetery.

At 2 o'clock p. m., exercises will be held at the church. Below is the program:

Quartet, "Peacefully Slumber the Brave."

Prayer by Rev. J. J. Bagaley.

Solo, "Put Flowers on Their Graves Today." Mrs. Maude Hedge.

Address, A. T. Bodie.

Song, "Testing on the Old Camp Ground."

Recitation, Miss Jennie Quinn.

Recitation, Miss Bessie Hibbs.

Music, "They Sleep in Their Country's Blue."

Solo, "I'll be Better in the Morning." Address, R. H. Looftbourrow.

Quartet, "God be With You Till we Meet Again."
